

Through stories of change

Trudy met Nina at a neighborhood dinner. She invited Nina to her Coffee Break small group. Nina, a new immigrant to Canada, grew up in an Islamic family. Her loneliness, tinged with curiosity, led her to accept the invitation . . .

Pastor Sylvain, of Burkina Faso, was the only one in his church equipped to preach. He completed the Biblical Preaching TLT manual. His Action Plan — to train five others in the preaching manual — resulted in more than he imagined . . .

Teacher Wangechi was assigned to teach. She had little formal training. Her job felt unimportant and overwhelming with more than forty students in her classroom. Could Educational Care training help . . . ?

... The Word began to do its work as Trudy and Nina explored Genesis. They discussed the stories of Abraham, Sarah, Hagar, and more.

... First, Pastor Sylvain put TLT training into practice. He used the Three Keys in his preaching:

- 🔑 Preaching the Text
- 🔑 Preaching the Gospel
- 🔑 Preaching for Kingdom Change

... In EC training, Wangechi realized teaching is not just a job. She was equipping students, uniquely created by God, for their future.

Nina learned that God was not distant but near. Nina's heart was softened. She went on to study Mark with her Coffee Break small group. It became clear to Nina that Jesus was her Lord.

Second, Pastor Sylvain led five others through the Biblical Preaching Manual.

- She explored with others:
- 🔑 Positive discipline
  - 🔑 Diverse learning styles
  - 🔑 Teaching methods

Her Coffee Break friends celebrated as Nina was later baptized. Today, Nina invites others to Coffee Break and helps share God's story.

When COVID-19 shut down large gatherings, they were ready. The church continued. They met in small groups, each led by a trained leader.

Teacher Wangechi realized she too could make an impact for the kingdom in her work. She had tools to help her students be agents of transformation.
